

Sierra Business Council invites you to a Think Local First Organizing Meeting

Think Local First KRV Organizing Meeting

Monday, July 6th @ 7:00 pm

Kernville Community Room (next to the Kernville Chamber office) 11447 Kernville Road (entrance off Sierra Way), Kernville

Think Local First Program is a Sierra Business Council program that fosters increased support for local organizations. This program, which SBC is piloting in 4 other communities throughout the Sierra Nevada, supports locally-owned independent businesses that sustain our communities and give our towns unique character.

Join local Kern River Valley and Southern Sierra individuals, businesses and organization representatives to help form a Southern Sierra Think Local First Steering Committee and define this program to best fit out area's needs. This meeting is a follow-up to the June 4th Organizing Meeting.

Co-sponsored by Kern River Valley Revitalization and Sierra Business Council in cooperation with the Kern River Valley & Kernville Chambers of Commerce.

To add your name to the KRV Think Local First e-mail list, e-mail eworinkrv@mchsi.com

---

MEETING INFO: Jim Davis; KRV Think Local First representative - davistalodge@gmail.com (760) 379-2844

INFO on the Think Local First Program & Sierra Business Council: Nikki Streegan nstreegan@sbcouncil.org